When we encountered vintage wood tambour sliding doors, manufactured for church organs, it inspired us to create the Amberley collection. A family of cupboards crafted from solid wood and fitted with solid wood tambour sliding doors. The rhythmic pattern of the wooden slats offer a unique tactile and visual experience. Amberley features more unique details such as subtle solid wood edging along its top and smooth legs as an integrated part of the structure. Inspired by the past and made possible by present day technology. The Amberley is the definition of a modern classic.

In the 19th century writing desks were used by everyone who could write. These desks often were edged with a perforated brass shield. Those days people wrote with ink. The perforated brass shield kept the paperwork on the table when a serious draft blew through the room. We are inspired by the privacy appearance of such a desk. Our Edburton desk will embrace you with warmth and privacy.

The amazing birth of handblown glass objects, known since the first century, are a perfect subject for Revised to work with. We decided to collaborate with an Italian glass blower close to Venice. Sand, lime and soda is heated in hot ovens (1130° Celsius) to create molten glass. The finished shape of the glass is defined by the mould into which the molten glass is skillfully blown. The Ovington lamps with their beautiful curves are one of a kind. The different sizes of shades fit perfectly over the body, creating a glass sculpture which will exist for generations.

The amazing birth of handblown glass objects, known since the first century, are a perfect subject for Revised to work with. We decided to collaborate with an Italian glass blower close to Venice. Sand, lime and soda is heated in hot ovens (1130° Celsius) to create molten glass. The finished shape of the glass is defined by the mould into which the molten glass is skillfully blown. The Ovington lamps with their beautiful curves are one of a kind. The different sizes of shades fit perfectly over the body, creating a glass sculpture which will exist for generations.

Design : Tjitske Storm

Tjitske Storm took her inspiration from the legacy of the Art Deco movement from the 1920s/30s and the language of design, art and architecture of that era. The characteristics of Art Deco reflect admiration for the modernity, design and luxury of the machine and machine-made objects, using geometric, clean and simple shapes. Tjitske aimed to reinterpret this feeling of classic modernity and brought it to life in the designs for the carpet collection, taking geometric language to a next level by adding and combining versatile fabric structures. She re-used sample pieces from the fabric library that was developed for Revised by Suzy Vissers and Renee Merckx, and adjusted, mixed and matched these with other material textures to create something fresh and contemporary.

The beauty and feeling of tactile material and the heritage craftsmanship of carpet/fabric making is honored and reflected in the designs and made modern and achievable by using the present day technique of digital printing for carpets.

BRAMBER

( MOBILE GREENHOUSE )

Design : David Le Versha

In this design we have returned to the aesthetic of putty cut at an angle in the past by angling our modern L-profile and using hardware which now allows the safety glass to be replaced and any maintenance should it be required in the future. The mechanism that keeps the glass lid open can also be fixed in all positions.

With two handles you roll the greenhouse like a wheelbarrow to the ideal spot in your garden where your seeds or cuttings can grow optimally in the sunlight or shade. Watering the plants is done by raising the tilting windows to any desired position.

All the materials we use in this design are stainless steel and aluminum. The stainless steel and aluminum are finished with two layers of powder coating. The glass is safety glass. The 'Bramber' will therefore last for generations to come. Only the paintwork will need to be repainted from time to time. We therefore give a 100-year guarantee on the construction of the Bramber.

CARE & MAINTENANCE

Packaging

All Revised products are produced and packaged with the utmost care and attention.

Never use sharp objects to open the packaging or to remove the protection material from the furniture or parts thereof. All protection materials should be removed without using any cutting tools.

Fabrics

To enjoy your textile for a long time, cherish it and use it properly. Keep your textiles as clean as possible. Make sure the upholstery textile is being cleaned regularly using a vacuum cleaner set to medium to low power. Be careful not to damage it with sharp points. When a hole occurs, this might result in damaging the textile. So always be careful with shoes, jeans and sharp objects.

When stains occur, act as quickly as possible to keep your textile beautiful. Remove liquid stains by carefully dabbing with a clean cloth, preferably white. Do not rub. When rubbing too hard you can damage the textile and the colour may fade.

Most stains can be treated with soapy lukewarm water. Never use hot water as heat will set stains. We recommend using a PH neutral detergent. Rub the stain gently with a clean cloth and afterwards dab the textile dry with a dry cloth to absorb moisture and soil.

Should a stain still occur we recommend you to use other detergents. But always test this on a discrete area of the textile. Please note these are only recommendations. We can never guarantee complete stain removal. We always recommend contacting a professional cleaning company for additional advice regarding your stain.

Revised textiles are mainly made from wool. Woollen textiles have the benefit of being dirt repellent. Spillages are not easily to penetrate the textile, which make it easier to reduce stains. Most liquid can be soaked up with a towel or tissue. Depending on the type of textile and colour the surface can get slightly fuzzy. At the end, make sure each stain is dapped again with clean water. When too much water is used circles can occur. These circles can be minimized by blow-drying it carefully on low speed. To keep your textile beautiful be patient and gentle when treating the stain.

Woods

Every tree is different and equally, every piece of wood has its own unique structure and color, no two parts are ever the same. Other characteristics of these naturally growing materials are knots and structural variations. Our products may contain small, healthy, closed knots (5-8 mm) that have developed naturally in the growing wood.

Wood is a natural material that breathes and reacts to the surrounding environment.

This may cause color differences and/or micro cracks in the varnish or wood structure of the product. The colors and dimensions of wood might change as a natural reaction to environmental conditions such as humidity and temperature.

These changes may lead to warping of the wood, which is why our producers use a tolerance of  $\pm 3-5$  mm for solid wood table tops. To minimize this, we recommend using the products in a room with a constant humidity (between 50% and 60%).

Prevent the product from being exposed to direct sunlight or other heat sources (fireplace, stove, radiator, etc.). This could lead to discoloration and/or cracks etc. of the wood, wicker, fabric or leather. Make sure you do not leave anything on one area of the surface for a longer period of time, as this may cause stains and discoloration.

For bended wooden furniture, we use solid wood that has not been treated with solvents or chemicals. Consequently, there may be color differences between the various parts. This is a natural feature of steam-bended wood and will therefore not be accepted as ground for complaints.

Lacquered and stained products

Lacquered or stained wood products can have variable varnish or stain absorption due to differences in the wood structure. This could produce color variations. When varnishing or staining products, Revised makes every effort to ensure the most optimal result, yet minor deviations cannot be entirely avoided.

Maintenance

A lacquered or stained finish does not require special maintenance. Wipe the product with a soft, clean and dry cloth made of lint-free material (such as cotton or linen). Do not press too hard to prevent irreversible polishing of the surface. Spilled liquids must be removed from the surface immediately with a warm, damp cloth. Dry the surface directly afterwards with a cloth, wiping in the direction of the wood fiber. Do not let stains dry on the surface, but remove them immediately. The varnished surface of solid wood or veneer products will develop a patina within the first few weeks of use. Cleaning with special cleaning agents is not necessary. If these are used, however, the instructions must be observed as indicated by the manufacturer. First test in a hidden place.

CARE & MAINTENANCE

Stone:

Marble and Onyx are beautiful natural stones that offer unique patterns and colors found in no other materials. Because of their composition, the basic care for these stones is the same. However, keep in mind that they are more porous than average stones and extra care and maintenance is needed. Marble and onyx are very susceptible to acid etching. Etching occurs when acids microscopically eat away at the surface of the stone, and are characterized by dull spots in the surface of the material. Any spills that occur should be wiped up immediately.

General stone care:

- Do not sit, stand or kneel on Marble or onyx surfaces.
- Do not cut directly on the surface. Scratching will occur.
- Do not drop heavy objects onto the surface.
- Hot plates are recommended when long term exposure to extreme heat is present.
- Do not use abrasive cleaners.
- Do not forcefully scrub any area of the surface.
- Do not allow water to pool for prolong period of time.

Daily Cleaning:

Marble countertops should be wiped clean after each use and spot cleaned as necessary. It is suggested to use cleaners specifically formulated for natural stone. The use of glass and window cleaners are not an acceptable method for caring for marble countertops, cleaner's other than dedicated natural stones cleaners will mar the surface resulting in a cloudy dull, appearance.

4. Unless agreed otherwise all other orders may be cancelled or changed within ONE working day following the order confirmation by Revised. Any other change or cancellation of an order is subject to Revised's written approval and is subject to conditions by Revised. 5. If the price, discounts or dates of delivery are based on an apparent error, Revised may correct the mistakes or cancel the order.

6. All agreements shall at all times be subject to credit approval by Revised. The aforementioned does not prevent Revised from requiring at any time security for compliance with Buyer's financial obligations.

3. Price and payment

1. All quoted prices by Revised HQ B.V. are in EURO.

2. All prices are exclusive VAT and other government duties or taxes, as well as any costs incurred in the context of the agreement, such as administrative, transport and COD charges. These taxes and costs will be added to the sales price and form a part of the agreed invoiced amount due by Buyer.

3. If discount is agreed for the purchase of a certain quantity or range in an order, Revised is not obliged to apply the discount if fewer or different goods than those agreed are actually delivered.

4. Unless expressly agreed otherwise, all orders are accepted on the basis of PRE-PAYMENT.

5. Any invoice must have been paid on Revised's bank account not later than 30 (thirty) calendar days upon invoice date. In case delivery of any order agreed on a PRE-PAYMENT condition takes place within the aforementioned term, the invoiced amount must be settled at least 5 (five) calendar days prior to the scheduled delivery date. No discount is allowed for early payments.

6. If the invoiced amount is not paid in within the payment term, then the Buyer is in default without any notice being required. as well as all execution costs, shall be for the Buyer's account.

8. Even if the Buyer is of the opinion that the quality of the delivered goods or services is not in accordance with the agreed goods or services, this does not release him from the obligation to pay.

9. If fewer goods are delivered, or received in good condition, then invoiced, and Buyer objects in good time, Buyer remains liable for the amount invoiced in respect of the goods received in undamaged condition.

10. In the event of any default by Buyer in the payment of any amounts or charges due, Revised has the right to postpone any further deliveries of any goods, without being liable for any losses by Buyer. Such right shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available under the agreement or at law.

4. Delivery / Transport cost or damage

1. Revised shall always use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver the services or goods within the delivery term. However, unless explicitly agreed otherwise in writing, delivery dates communicated in or acknowledged by Revised are approximate dates. Revised shall not be liable or be in breach of its obligations, when delivery is made sooner or later than the communicated delay. 2. If the communicated delivery date is exceeded, Buyer is still obliged to take delivery of the goods or services, unless before delivery Buyer has put Revised in default, allowing Revised with a reasonable period to execute the agreement, and such term has also expired. 3. Revised may postpone any delivery in the case of production problems affecting the quantity of goods or the quality of goods produced. If such delay last longer than 3 (three) calendar months, either party may cancel the order. Revised is not liable for any losses, including lost profits or savings by Buyer. 4. Unless explicitly agreed otherwise, any delivery is made under Incoterms
